Adaptability to Different Styles

The four pure behavioral styles exist on comparative continuums with each other. The four behavioral tendencies scales illustrate the degree of adaptation that is required for effective communication as they match your response to Sample's behavioral style.

Sample's strongest behavioral style (i.e., highest plotting point) is marked with the ✓ symbol.

If you have completed your own DiSC® Profile, plot your highest DiSC style on each of the four scales with an "X." The degree of difference indicates how much you will need to adapt to communicate with Sample in his comfort zone.

Management Action Plan

Step 1: DEFINE the project or task to be completed.

Step 2: CONSIDER Sample in light of this task or project.

Which style of behavior did you determine best described him?

Which Management Approach did you decide would be most effective?

Step 3: REVIEW page 5, "Suggestions for Interaction," to identify possible approaches. List two or three specific actions you plan to take with Sample.

1.

2.

3.

Step 4: CLARIFY the specific actions and responsibilities for yourself and Sample.

What do you expect him to do?

What will you do?

When will this be accomplished?

Step 5: IMPLEMENT your plans and then consider the results.

What did you learn about Sample?

How can you be more effective with him in the future?

Step 6: FOLLOW-UP

How and when will you check on Sample's progress with this project?

What further actions might you take and on what date?
